Bioeconomy Corporation Announces Dr Lee Boon Chye As New Chairman

By Cynthia Ignatius - July 14, 2023

Appointed by the Prime Minister, Dr Lee Boon Chye succeeds YB Datuk Iskandar Dzulkarnain Abdul Khalid who retired on 16 December 2022.

YBrs Dr Lee carries with him vast and notable experience primarily in the medical sector. He is currently a Resident Consultant Physician and Cardiologist at KPJ Ipoh Specialist Hospital.

Amongst his illustrious achievements include a term as Deputy Minister of Health from 2018 to 2020 and three terms as Member of Parliament Malaysia (Gopeng) from 2008 to 2012.

He was also a former Member of Parliamentary Select Committee on Health, Science and Innovation.

Besides currently sitting on the boards of several private companies, YBrs Dr Lee is also instrumental in the development of the healthcare tourism industry in Malaysia through his directorship in Malaysian Healthcare Travel Council.
